

AIT Labs and SharePoint

Ron Thieme, Ph.D.
Vice President and CIO

February 16, 2010

AIT Laboratories has the best apples in the bunch. As an employee-owned business, we strive to be the leading life sciences company for the people we work for and the people who work for us. Our employees are focused on healthcare advancement, education, and community involvement. Picking the good apples is part of our science.

 AIT LABS ^{very} the good apple.

Forensic

- Lab analysis for law-enforcement professionals, often necessary to establish cause of death or distinguish between a criminal act and an accident

Pain Management

- Verifying patient compliance, evaluating their progress, and identifying misuse and abuse of prescription and illicit drugs

AIT Bioscience

- Developing and performing tests for clinical, pre-clinical, and discovery studies for the pharmaceutical and biotech industries
